ORDER VACATING CASE
MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE;
EXTENDING STAY

Re: Dkt. Nos. 29, 33

12 The Court is in receipt of the Parties' Joint Status Report. Dkt. 33. In light of the Parties'
13 representations that Plaintiffs are still attempting to serve Defendant T&T with a copy of the 14 Complaint and Summons and that the Parties have reached a tentative global settlement, the Court
15 ORDERS as follows:

16 • The case management conference set for December 13, 2022 is VACATED.
17 • The stay is extended for 90 days.
18 • The Parties that have settled shall file a stipulation of dismissal by March 7, 2023.

19 If a dismissal is not filed by March 7, 2023, the settling Parties shall appear by 20 videoconference on March 14, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. and show cause, if any, why the 21 case should not be dismissed. Additionally, the settling Parties shall file a
22 statement in response to this Order no later than March 7, 2023, describing with 23 specificity (1) the Parties' efforts to finalize settlement within the time provided,
24 and (2) whether additional time is necessary, the reasons therefor, and the 25 minimum amount of time required to finalize the settlement and file the dismissal.

26 If a dismissal is filed by March 7, 2023, the Order to Show cause hearing will be
27 automatically vacated, and the Parties need not file a statement in response to this 28 Order.

1 • The non-settling Parties shall file a joint case management conference statement by
2 March 7, 2023, with a proposed case schedule and shall appear by videoconference
3 for a case management conference on March 14, 2023, at 9:30 a.m.
